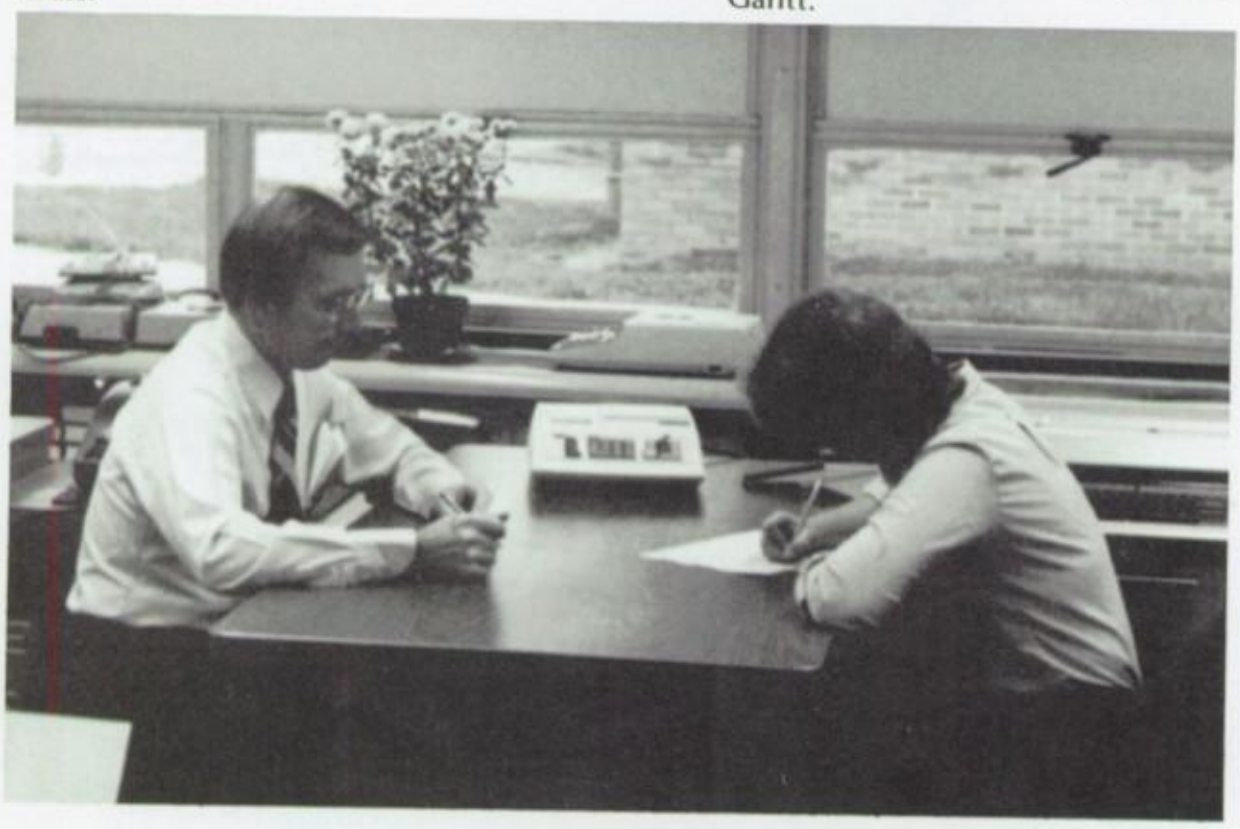
O.E.A. TEACH DAY

Members from the community visited the high school and elementary schools for a day of hands-on teaching. Their backgrounds were varied — from housewives to businessmen.

It proved to be an opportunity for others to see how the educational process really works.

The day ended in a banquet for all participating teachers and community members. Mrs. Szymczak and Miss Blechschmidt helped to organize this event.



Mr. Ziegler gives out individual spelling tests.

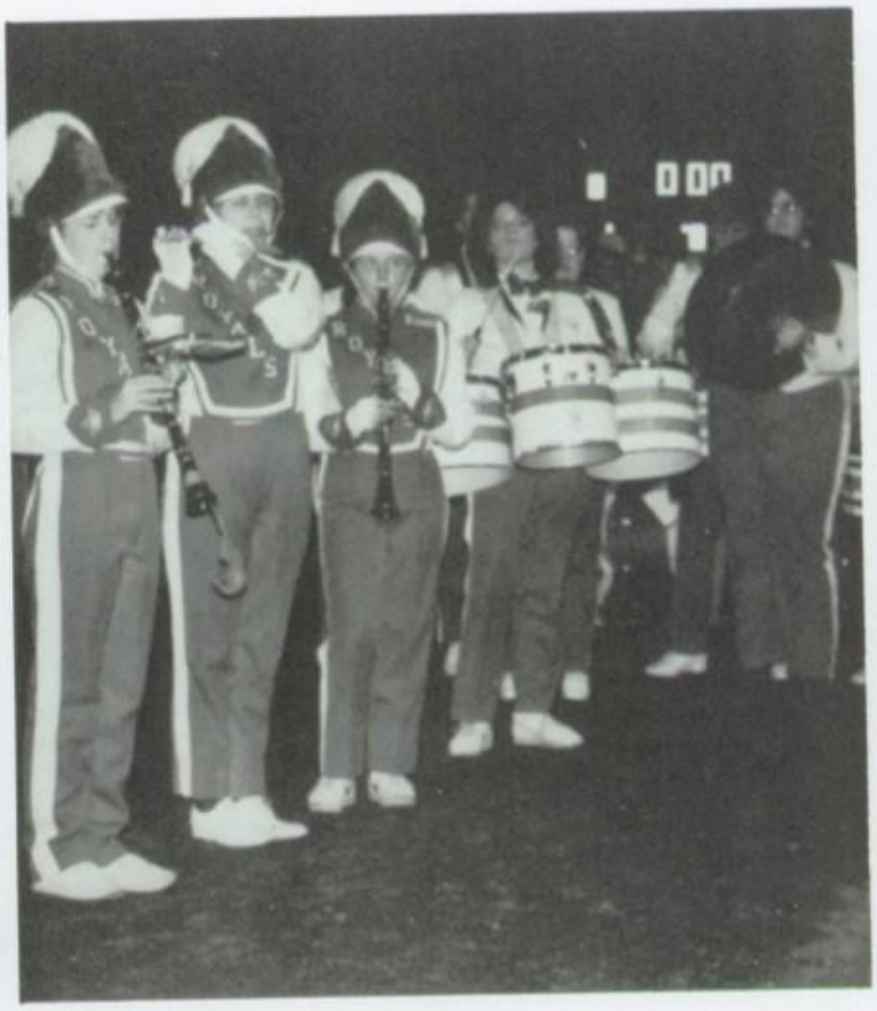
MARCHING



BAND

The Pep Band did a tremendous job this year of getting the student body involved in the basketball games and into the wrestling matches.

Their school spirit alone helped to bring the crowd together. Their pep and enthusiasm are unequalled in the S.L.L.

The Football festivities took place prior to the Lakota ballgame on October 7, 1983. Karen Rosendale, the returning Queen, crowned Vicki Rombach as the 1983 Fall Homecoming Queen.

Karen was escorted by captains Jeff Garner and Ryan Dauterman. Vicki was escorted by Ryan Buckingham and Kris Murlin. The fabulous Freshman attendant, Dianne Barndt, was escorted by Bill Donaldson. Brenda Rice, the stunning Sophomore attendant, was escorted by her brother Brian Rice. Willie Schafer escorted the jubilant junior attendant, Beth Lashuay, and last but not least, the lovely Senior attendant, Michele Solether, was escorted by Barry Kirby.

Each of the attendants received a beautiful bouquet of silk flowers as well as a charm from the Student Council.

The following evening a dance was held in the High School Gymnasium to honor the Queen and her Court.

Michele and Barry.

Vicki is escorted by Ryan and Kris.

Willie and Beth.

Brenda enjoys the ride.

PEP WEEK

What a "studly" looking group!

Reverting back to their childhood.

Hats off to Mark and Tracy.

Yes, that's Brian Snyder.

Some sophomores letting their spir show.

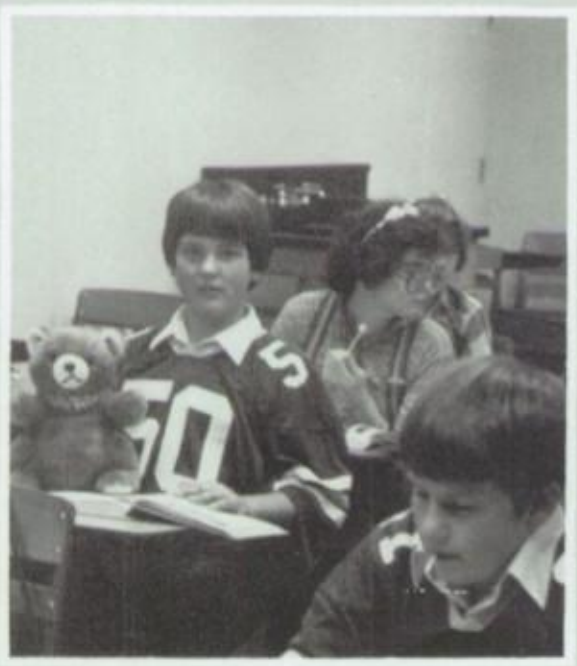
SPIRIT GALORE

The Troubs really outdid themselves.

Does Michele look like the top banana?



Ronnie brought along a friend today.

Angel at it again!

Too sweet for words.

QUEST WEDDING

Once again this year, Elmwood was the sight of a wedding. The Quest Class kept themselves busy making wedding plans and getting all the details worked out.

The event turned out to be quite an occasion with everyone having a good time.

Kelly and Tino take their vows from Preacher Brian.

All eyes are on the bride and groom.

Luke gave Kelly away at the wedding.

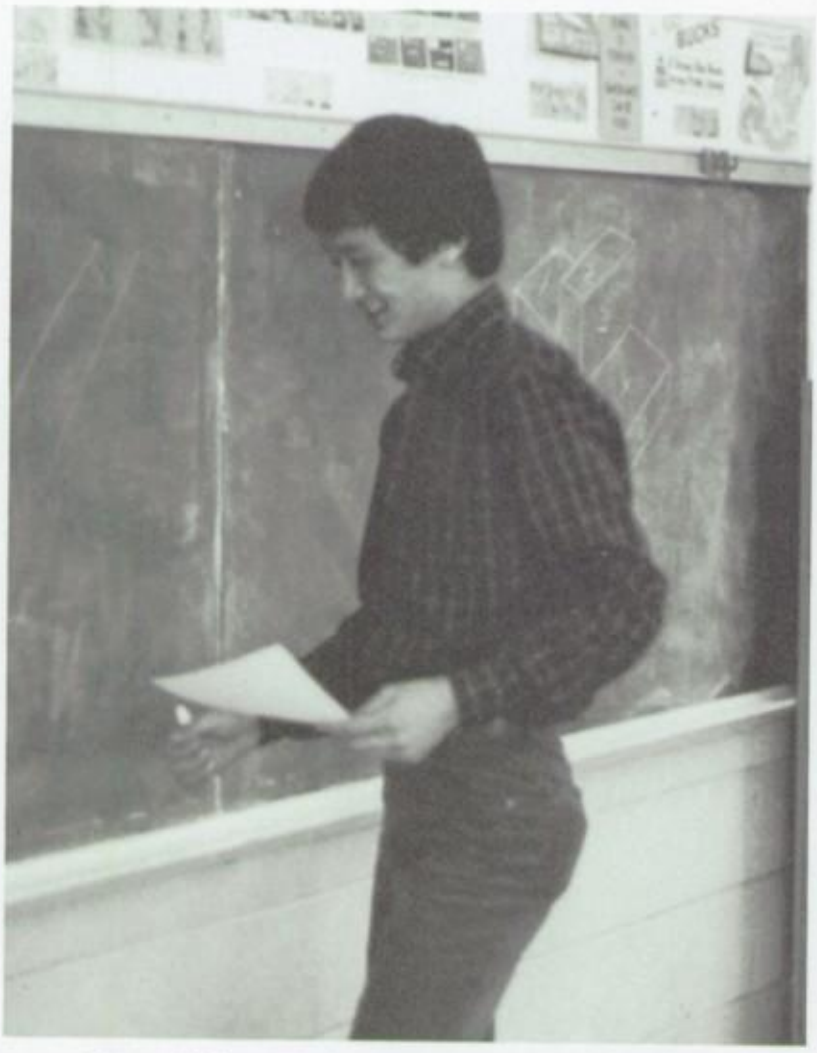
The reception afterwards is always fun.

Barry and Mr. Rice were head of the musical department a this wedding.

FTA TEACH DAY

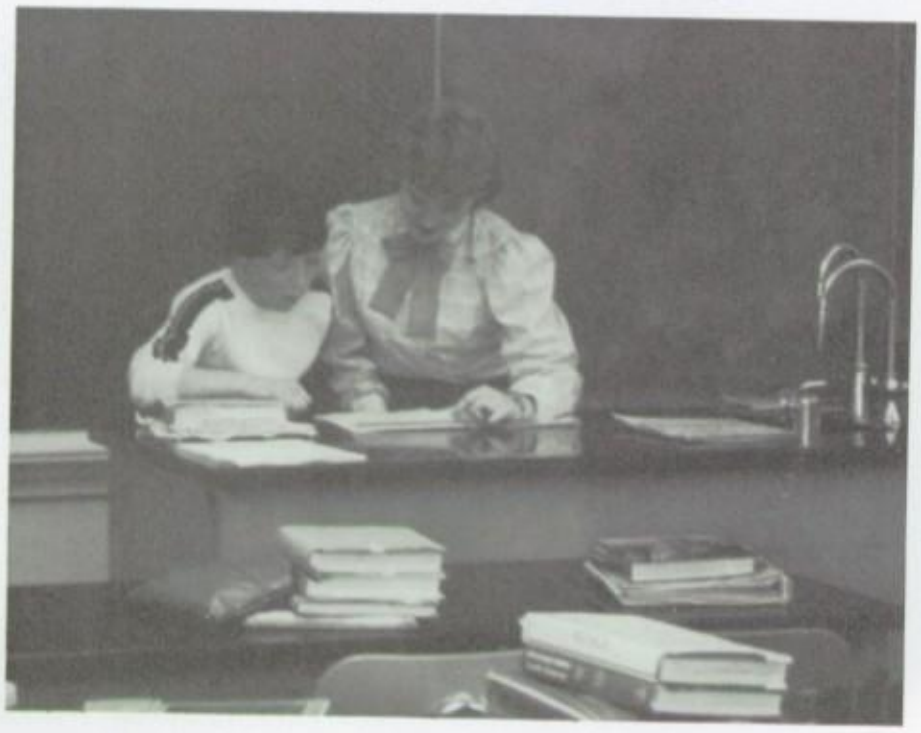
FTA once again took part in Teach Day. Most of the students spent the day at the Junior High. It is a day the participants long remember.

Cindy sat in on Mrs. Boxley's class.



Sung Ki begins to put notes on the board.

Michele helps a couple of eighth graders.

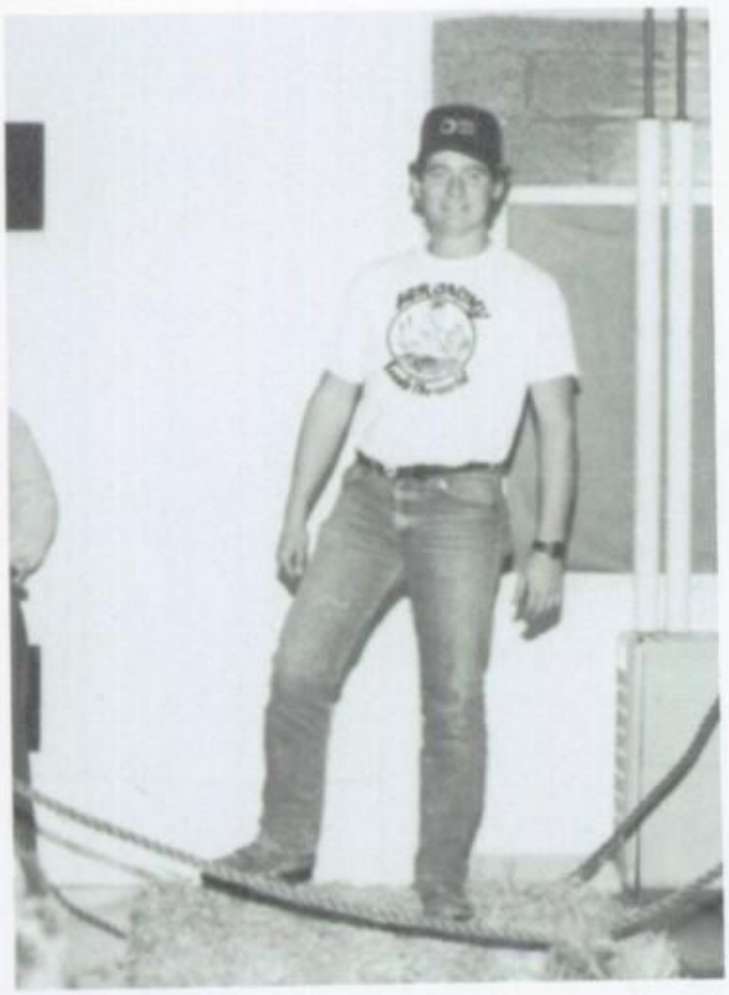


A student receives a little extra help from Cindy.

Karen seems to be enjoying her day.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Members of FFA went to Portage Elementary to show different facets of farmin



Jim Carter looks like he really wants to work for his money.

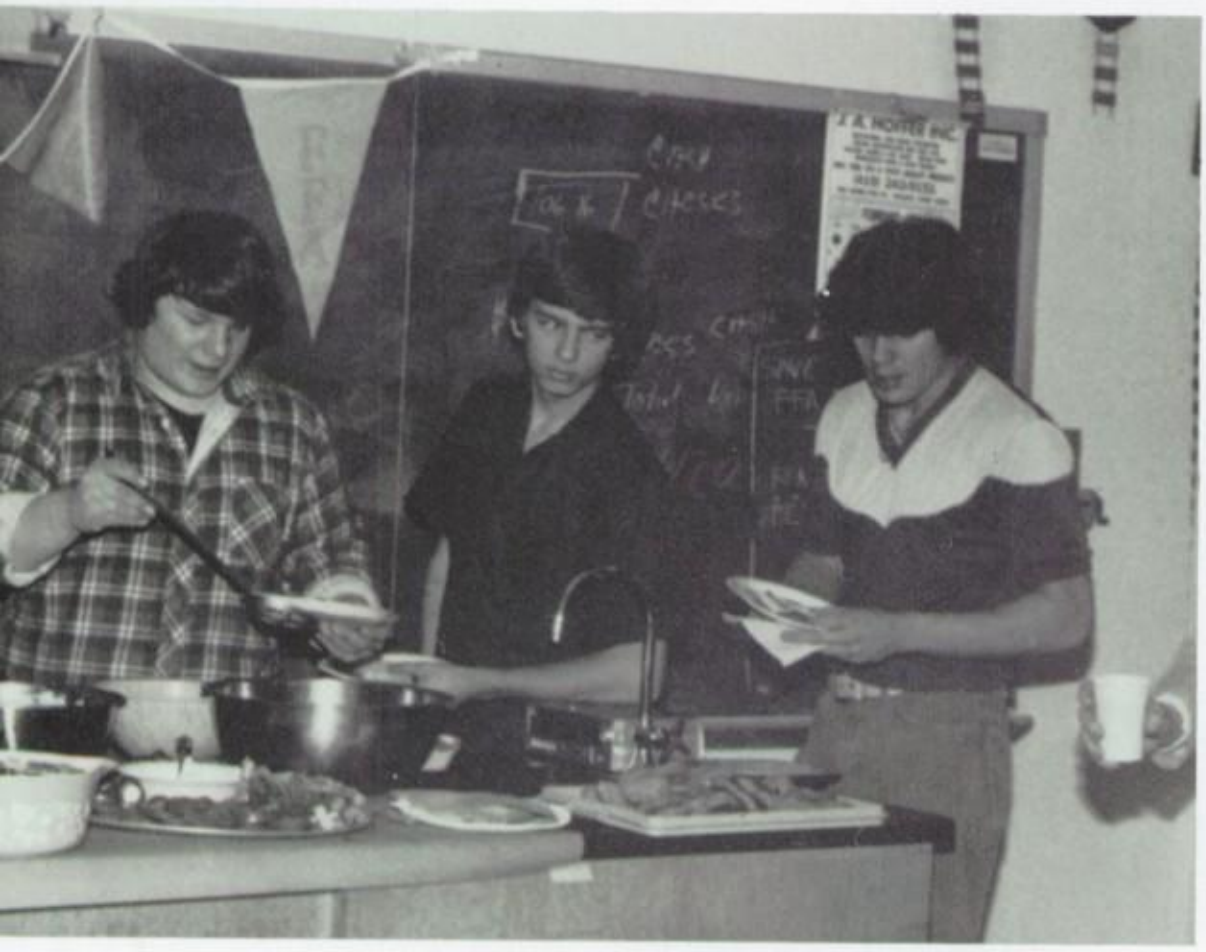
The members worked on many types of farm equipment.

Mr. Borer, their advisor, has done an excellent job with the group.

The "TRACTORCADE" is always looked forward to.

One of the most active clubs at Elmwood is the Future Farmers of America. As depicted on these two pages, the club is always involved in not only competitive events but also in service projects.

The members are continuously showing their skills and talents both individually and as an organization.



The FFA sponsored a buffet lunch for the staff at Elmwood during FFA Week.

Terry and Doug are working on their Apple Cider Money Making Project.

Charlie is being auctioned off during the Slave Auction.

ring the luncheon, members of FFA presented a slide show of eir activities throughout the year.

The auction is always a way to get "quality" labor at cheap rates.

HALL

The hall decorating contest this year was one of the best ever. Each class chose a theme and decorated their hall accordingly.

The FRESHMAN class chose the "Thriller" theme and used an actual casket as one of their decorations. You could also swing to the beat of Michael Jackson's tunes as you strolled down their hall.

The SOPHOMORE class centered their theme around road signs such as "One Way to a Victory." They even went so far as to have a divided highway as you went around the bend to their hall.

DECORATION

The JUNIOR hall used a "Color" theme to show their spirit. They decorated lockers as huge crayons while their signs "Painted a Way to Victory" for the Royal athletes.

As votes were tallied the SENIOR hall was picked the winner. Their originality and creativeness proved to be the winning factors. The seniors used the "Campaign Trail" as a theme. They not only used hall decorations, but they also wore campaign hats, wrote an original newsletter, and selected excellent campaign slogans to help pave their way to a victory.

DONKEY GAME

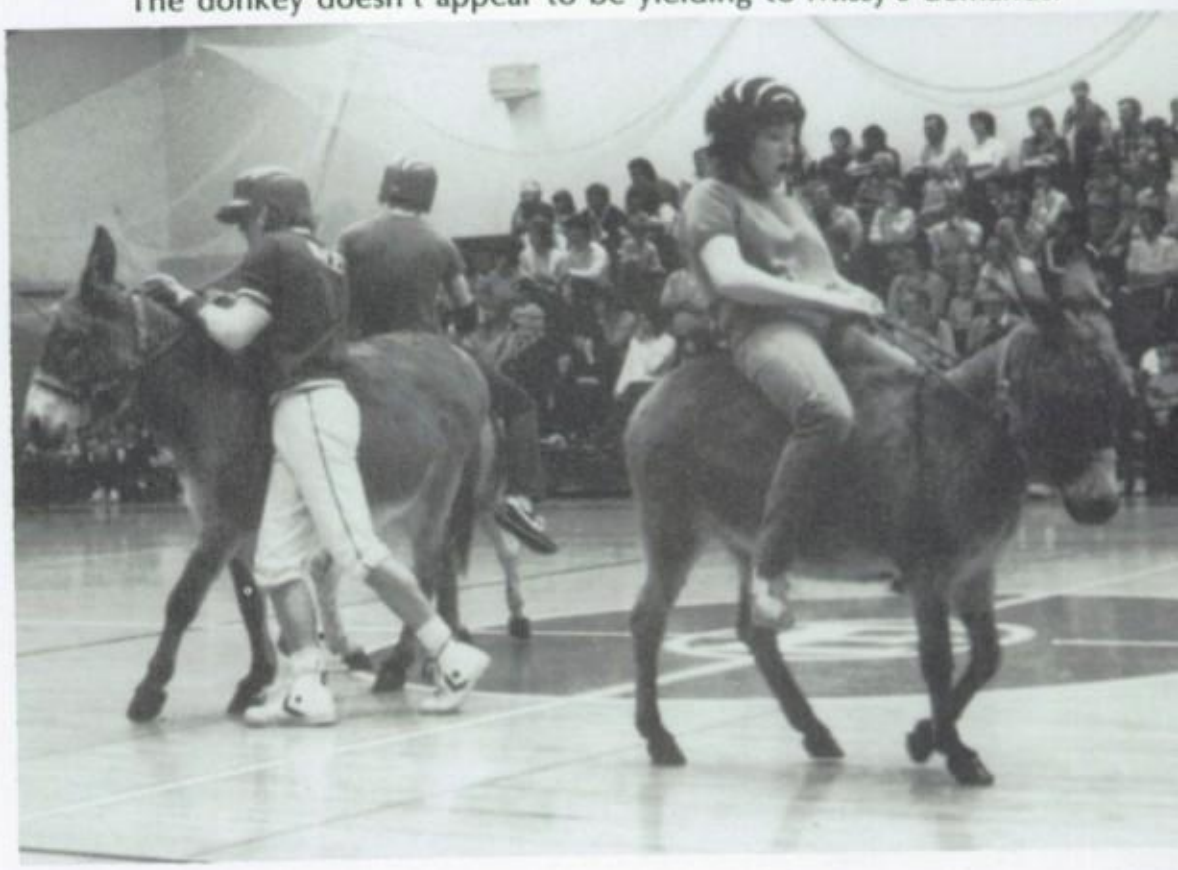
The donkey seems to have the upper "hand" on Barry.

Ron and Brad were candidates for "Queen of the Game." They lost to Bonnie Ziegler who received the honor.

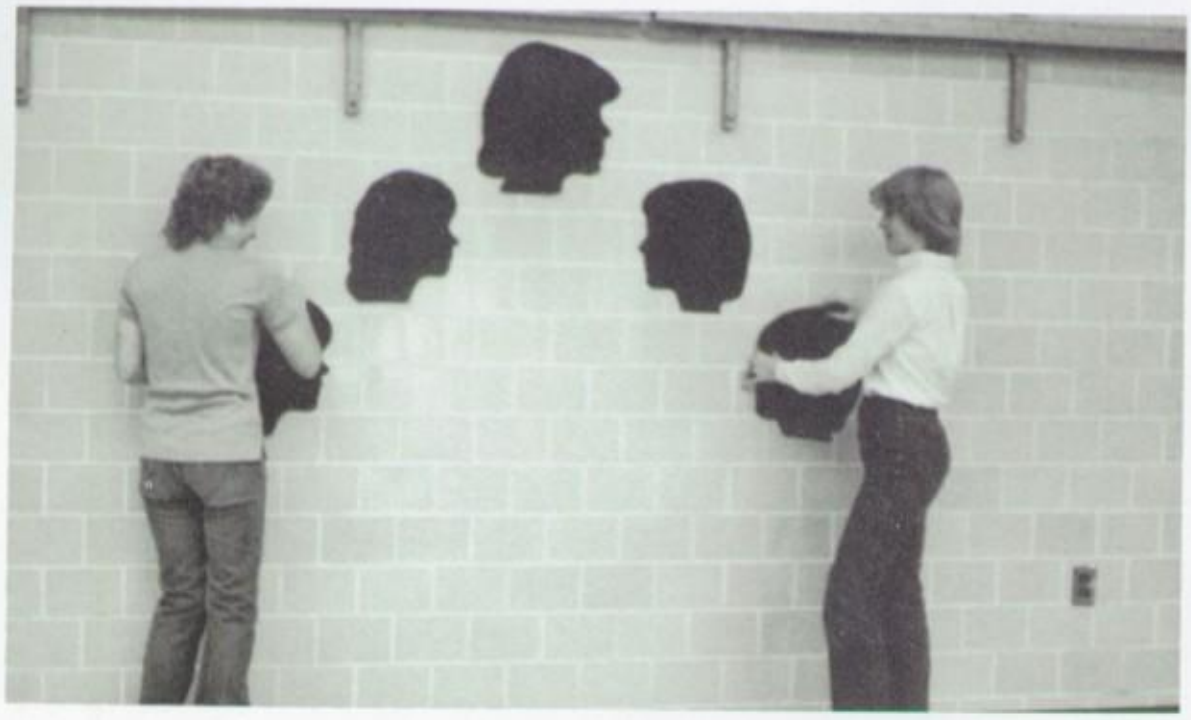
One of the most "interesting" events of the year was the Donkey Ballgame which was sponsored by the Student Council and E.E.A. Not only did it prove to be a successful community affair, but it also raised money for a scholarship to a graduating senior.

Could they be going after a rebound?

Mrs. Ault looks like she could be headed for trouble.
The donkey doesn't appear to be yielding to Missy's demands.

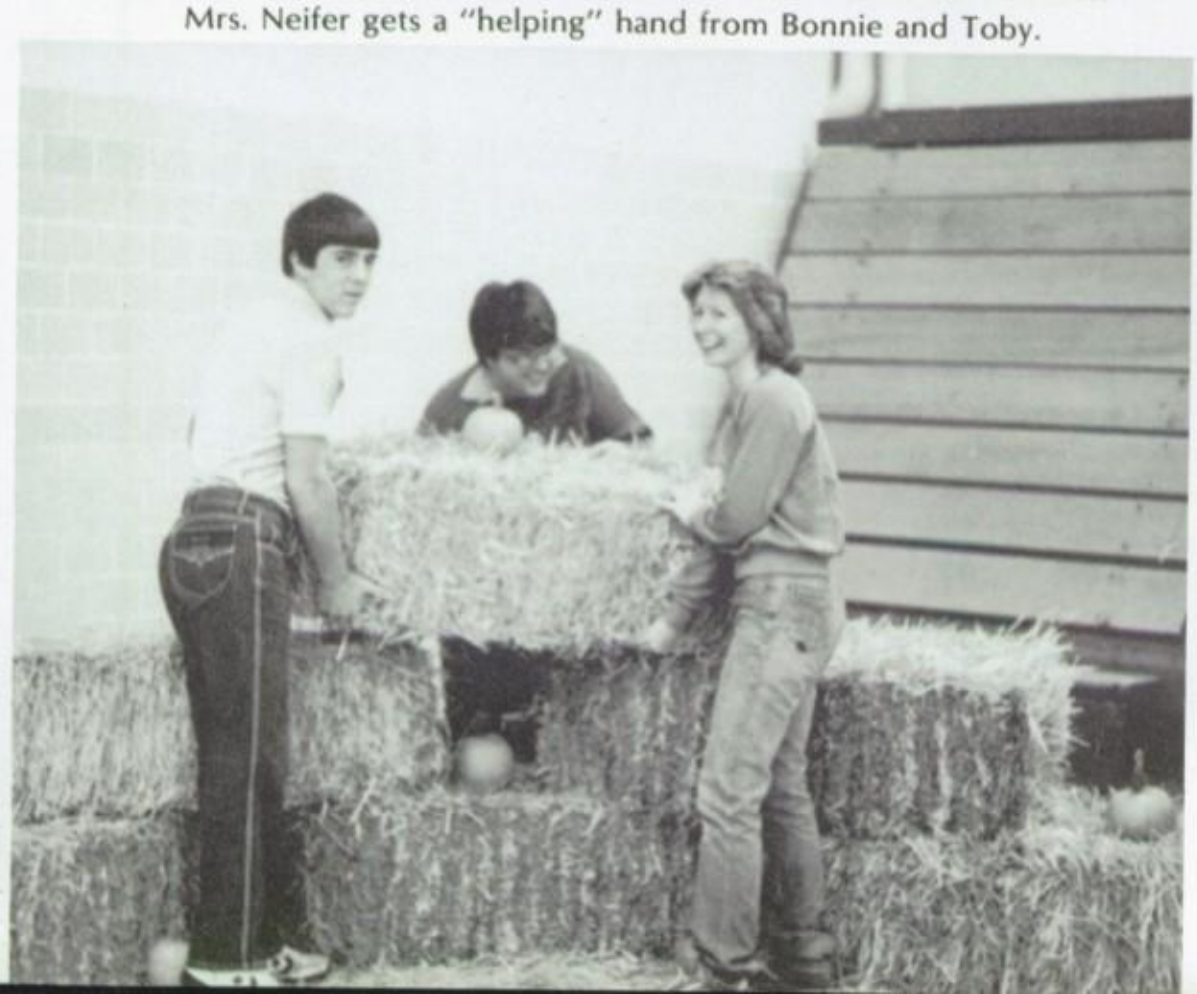


STUDENT COUNCIL



Lori and Jill getting the background ready for the court.

This year the Student Council added innovative ideas to the dances. Mrs. Neifer gets a "helping" hand from Bonnie and Toby.



The Student Council works hard to set up the homecoming dances.

Members must be present at meetings and activities to keep their membership.

The Student Council is the main reason that homecomings are a huge success at Elmwood. The members are busy selecting flowers, decorating the gym, buying momentos and making sure the evening is one of the attendants, queen, and escorts remember.

They also keep the school signs up to date and help serve as guides for various school activities.

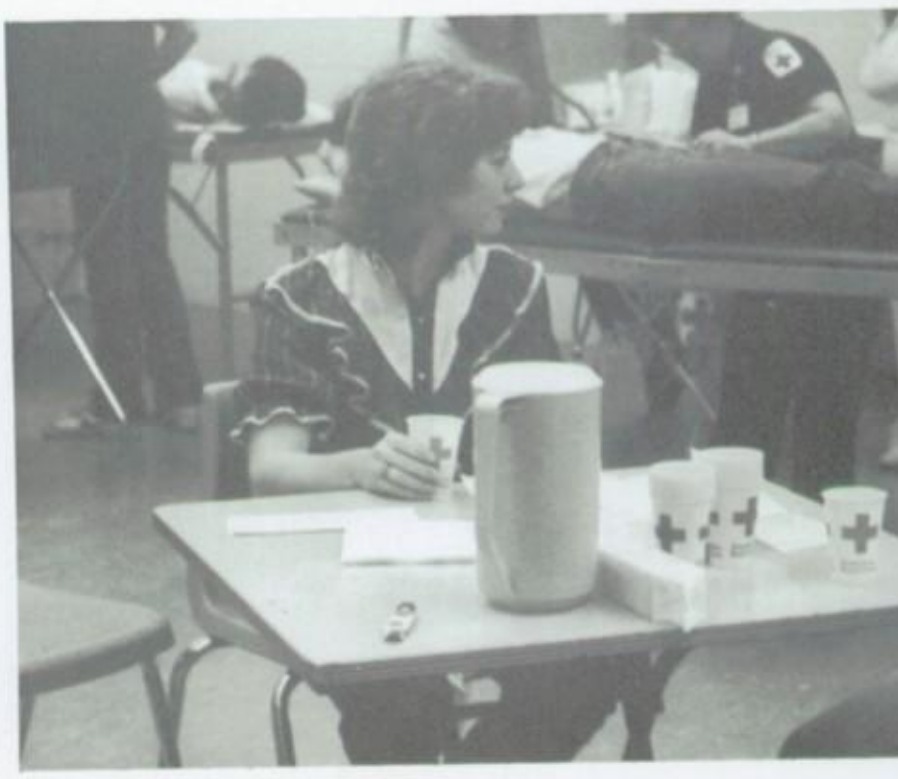
Murlin, B. Smith, S. Curry, R. Kehres, C. Elder, J. Gorrill; Row 7: Mrs. Symczak, Mrs. Ault, Mr. Szymczak, Mr. Black, R. Schroeder.

Like many students, Tom gave his share.

Mr. Black keeps tally of units given.

After giving blood, donators get refreshments.



Diana plays the waiting game.

WOODY PICKUT BLOODMOBILE

Cindy Miller, student chairman, did an excellent job of organizing the bloodmobile project. Members of the anatomy class who assisted Cindy were Luke Edmunds, Willie Schafer, Penny Gill, and Terri and Tracy Moore. Their instructor, Mr. Black, has helped the bloodmobile to be the success that it is at Elmwood.

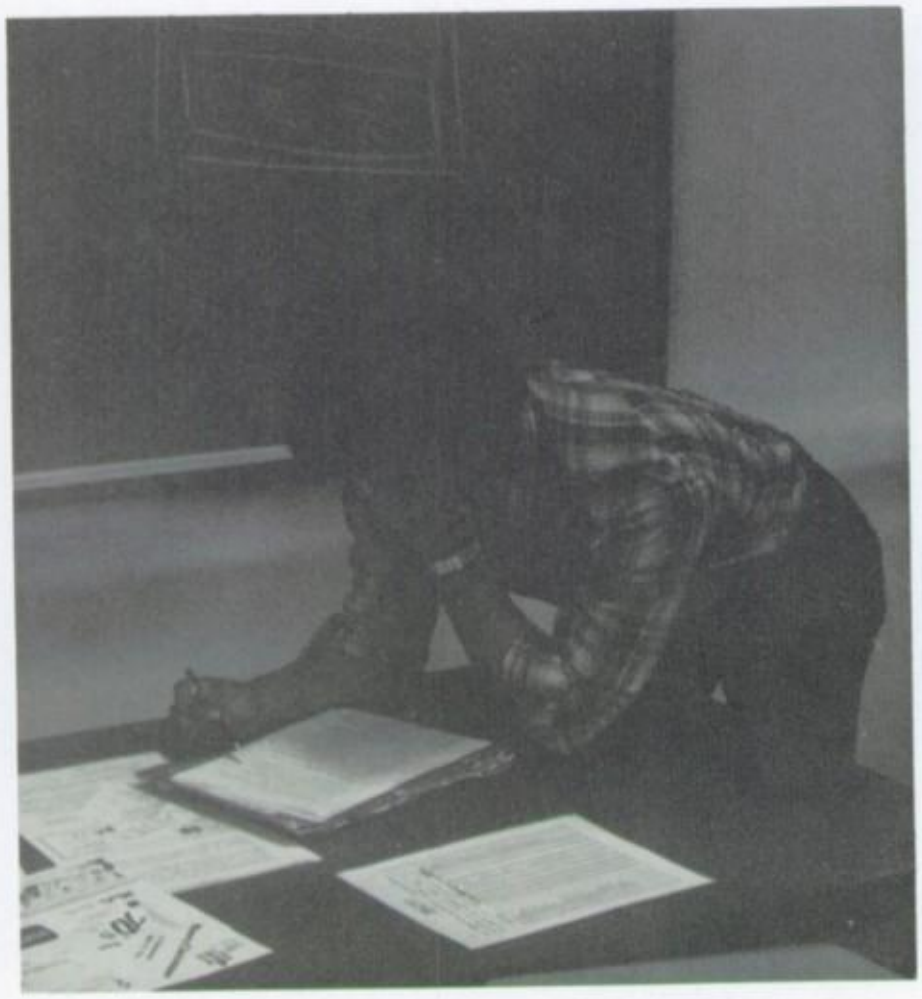
The nurse trying to find her mark.

Teachers and students alike help with the project.

Jenny and Cary were just one of a few workers.

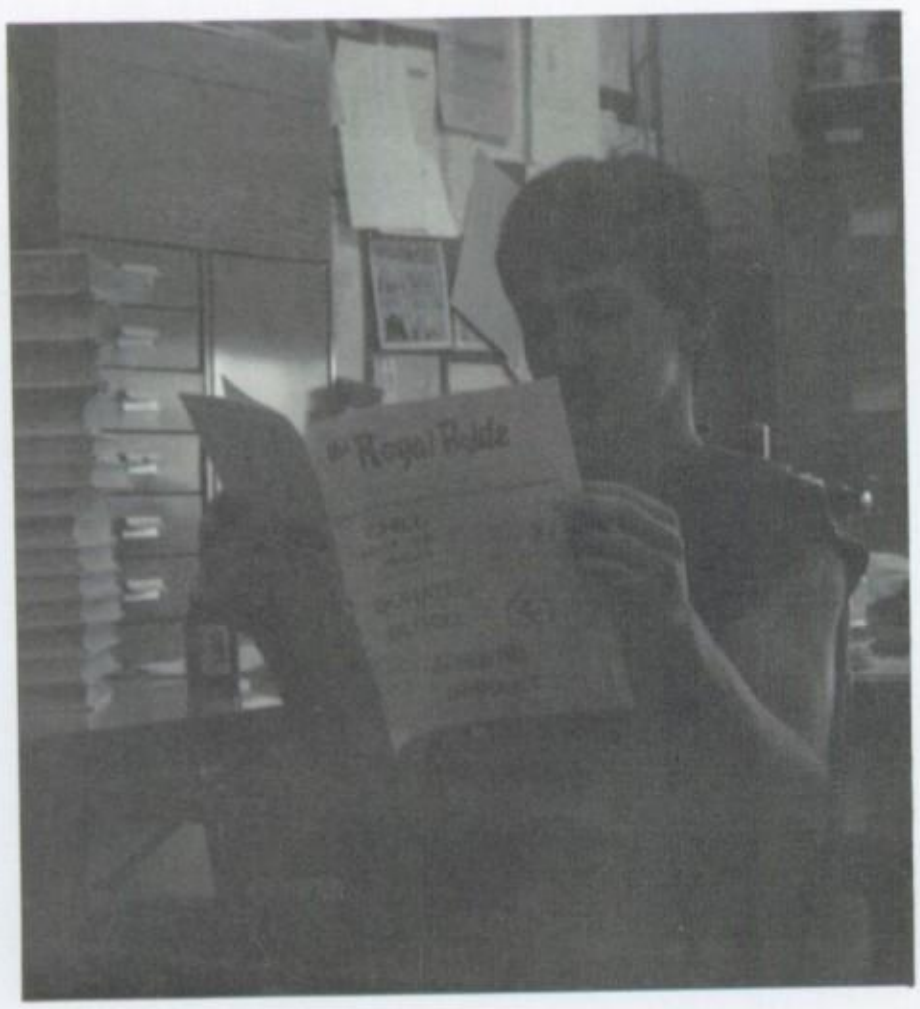
Shelley getting her blood pressure taken.

ROYAL PRIDE NEWSPAPER STAFF

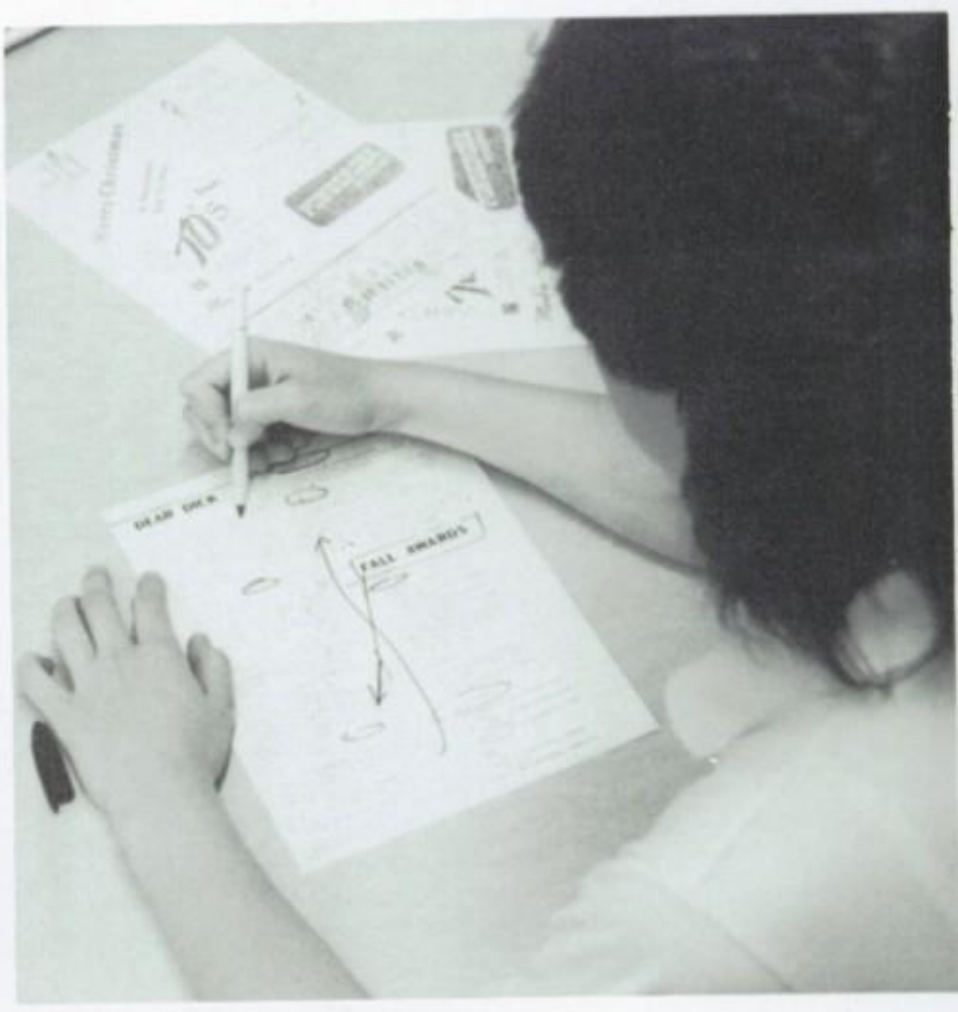


Tino takes time to proofread copy.

There's a great deal of typing on the newspaper staff.



Ryan takes a few minutes to enjoy the final copy.



The layout is one of the most important parts of a newspaper.

ROYALE STAFF

The annual is more than just pictures — it is made up of the records of the past school year, the scores of sporting events, and the achievements of individual's throughout their school years.

It takes a great deal of time to try to make the annual a book of memories and the Royale Staff hopes that the 1983-84 annual will bring back many of those memories in the years ahead.

Pam and Carol working on a page layout.

Angie choosing just the right picture for the wrestling page.

Laura Foster and Laura Bowsher worked hard to meet the annual's deadlines.

Kelley dedicated many hours finishing up last minute details on pages.

Lisa was always willing to proofread the pages after their completion.

PENTA STUDENTS JOB

Ben is working on a small engine.

Gloria is doing very well in the Executive Secretary Program.

Many students are ready for jobs upon graduation from Penta.

Joyce is preparing a meal in her food service class.

Ron has enjoyed his year at Penta.

The Business and Office Programs at Penta prepare many students for future jobs.

COUNTY OBTAIN SKILLS

Joyce is in the Horticulture Program at Penta.

As you can see, Brian is in the Construction and Electricity Program at Penta.

Nina hopes to work in an office some day.

At Penta, Norma receives on-hands training.

Valuable training now will benefit Larry in the future.

The Heating and Air Conditioning Program is a popular one at Penta.

Penta has up-to-date machines for students like Peggy to train on.

Pam hopes to use her skills to become a beautician.

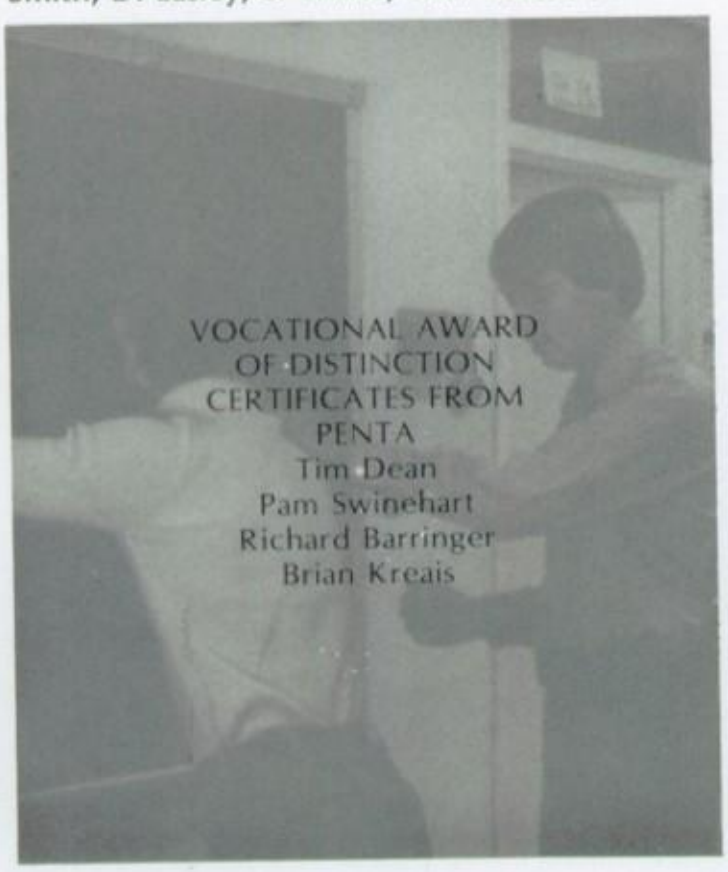
Russ visited Elmwood to explain his program to his home school.



It is always interesting for Penta students to come back and to let our students know what is available for them at Penta.

Keeping score can be tedious.

Debbie aims for the pins.

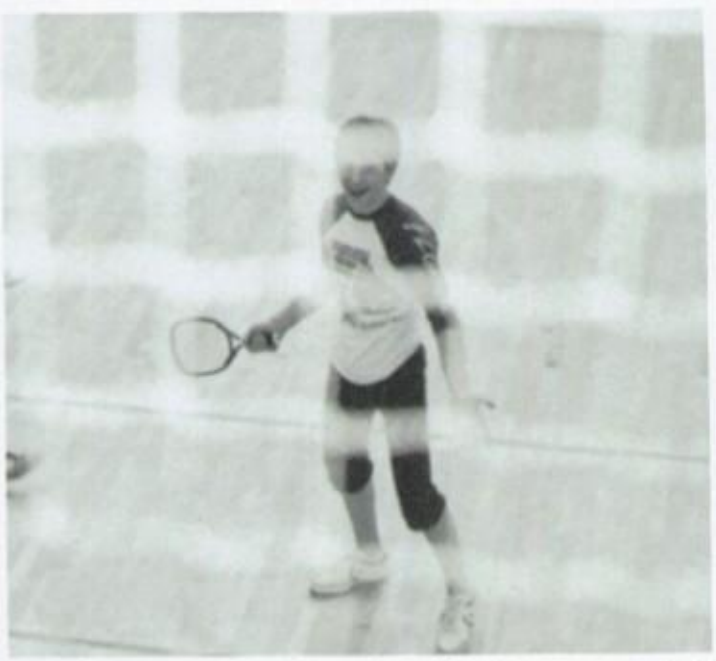
Table tennis was a popular activity at the rec center.



Ryan seems to be enjoying the racquetball courts.

The sophomores eat refreshments after their swim.

The Sophomore Class attended the Recreation Center at Bowling Green University on May 4, 1984. During their time at B.G.S.U., they had a cookout and participated in many activities, such as racquetball, basketball, ping-pong, aerobics and swimming. Their advisor, Mrs. Neifer, helped to make this an activity that the class will long remember.

A little aerobics for the good of the body.

FRESHMEN RELAX

After bowling and putt-putt, the freshmen had pizza delivered.

This was the first Freshmen Class to participate in such a class activity.

Mrs. Szymczak organized the event for the class.

As you can see, the freshmen had a chance to mingle.

The class activity was held at Varsity Lanes where the students could both bowl and putt-putt.

The weather was super for the outing.

GETTING IT TOGETHER

Prior to dress rehearsal and the actual production nights all members of the cast have to be made-up which can only be accomplished by the help of outside individuals.

"THE SOUND OF MUSIC"

Seated: T. Wagner, Mr. Van Brussel, J. Ault, M. Cessna, C. Ohler, Mr. Rice, L. Long; Second row: M. Carr, R. Benschoter, J. Boxley, J. Gill, C. Feasel, L. Bendele, L. Ziegler, A. Plassman, R. Bishop, B. Aller, P. Gonyer, S. Arnold, R. Reynolds, D. Barndt, B. Ziegler, D. Eishen, L. Bresler, P. Gill, C. Amos, T. Kern, J. Harris; Ascending to Balcony: G. Ohler, J. Hunker, P. George, K. Paterson, K. Long, J. LaMarche, M. Rhodes; Balcony: C. Maxwell, J. Wendt, K. Schroeder, J. Evans, A. Bowen, D. Feasel, M. Shirley, R. Castor, R. Hoadley, W. Schafer, M. Morlock, K. Thompson.

The hills are alive with the "Sound of Music."

Maria teaches the Von Trapp family their first notes.

A MUSICAL

Steve played the character of Max, a long time friend of the Captain's.

Andi did a superb job of playing two of the major characters in the play. Above she is portraying Elsa.

As Mother Abbess, Andi led the nun's chorus several times.

Some of the guests at the Captain's for an evening.

The nun's chorus singing one of their numbers.

SUCCESS

PIT ORCHESTRA

Technicians: M. Shirley, K. Hosley, B. Woodyard, L. Foster, B. Rosendale.

The pit orchestra practiced long hours for the play.

The lights and sound are an important part of a musical.

This year's musical was a huge success — thanks to the help of a large number of people.

WHEN I'M WITH YOU

APRIL 28, 1984 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

On April 28 the Junior Class held the Junior-Senior Prom at the U.A.W. Hall in Fostoria. The juniors built a gazebo to dance under. As you walked into the hall, you crossed over a bridge. Each girl was given a white silk rose tied with lavender ribbons to represent the colors of this year's prom. Every table was lighted with a hurricane lamp, as well as having lavender napkins, programs, and dinnerware to carry out the colors.

The juniors dedicated the prom to the "Class of 1984" as they danced to the prom theme "When I'm with You." "Apple Ridge" played for the prom and Mr. Ramsey called square dancing.

An outstanding meal was prepared by Mrs. Moehlman with the help of parents. Mrs. Wellman received a gift from the junior and senior class for her help with the prom.

Everyone looks forward to the evening.

The buffet meal is really quite something.

The prom always seems to be a special night.

Debbie and Steve looked fantastic.

The juniors did a super job building the gazebo.

A good time is had by all.

Tino and Patty dancing the night away.

Parents are a help the night of the prom.

More people attended this year's prom than ever before.

The hours pass by quickly.

SPECIAL PROJECTS

HOME EC

The Home Ec. Department helped the Student Council this year by preparing the flowers for football homecoming. Mrs. Nietz and members of her advanced home ec. classes made the silk arrangements during class as a project.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Mr. Snyder's Industrial Art classes stripped, repaired, and stained the bleachers in the gym. It was a huge project and they did an excellent job.
